

Securityholder Communications Policy

1. Overview

Elixinol Global Limited (Group) has adopted this Securityholder Communications Policy to ensure that the Group provides securityholders with access to information to ensure that trading in its securities takes place in an efficient, competitive and informed market.

Information is provided to securityholders and other stakeholders primarily through the following methods:

- (a) releases to the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) in accordance with continuous disclosure obligations;
- (b) the Group's annual and half-yearly reports;
- (c) the Group's annual general meeting (AGM); and
- (d) the Group's website.

2. ASX releases

The Group will make announcements to ASX in accordance with the ASX Listing Rules.

See the Group's Continuous Disclosure Policy for more information on its policy and procedures in relation to its disclosure obligations.

3. Reports to securityholders

The Group produces two financial reports annually for securityholders:

- (a) interim report for the six months to 30 June; and
- (b) annual report for the year to 31 December.

Securityholders may view these documents on the Group's website.

4. Annual General Meeting

The Group will choose a date, time and venue for its AGM that is considered to be convenient to the greatest number of its securityholders, which will be notified to the ASX when the preliminary financial report is lodged.

The notice of meeting will be accompanied by explanatory material setting out the items of business of the meeting. A copy of the notice of meeting will be placed on the Group's website.

Securityholders are encouraged to attend, and participate at, the meeting, or if unable to attend, to submit a proxy form to enable securityholders to vote on the motions. The proxy form is included with the notice of meeting.

Securityholders who are not able to attend the AGM may provide questions or comments to the Group ahead of the meeting via the contact information on the Group's website. Where appropriate, such questions will be answered at the meeting.

5. Website

All Group announcements will be posted on the Group's website immediately after they are released to ASX. The Group's website will also contain other corporate material of interest to securityholders, including:

- (a) copies or summaries of relevant corporate governance policies, including the Board Charter and Securities Trading Policy;
- (b) notices of securityholder meetings and explanatory material; and
- (c) the prospectus for the initial public offering of the Group.

The Company Secretary must review the relevant information before it is posted on the Group's website.

6. Dissemination of information by email

Securityholders may elect to receive communications from the Group by email.

7. Privacy

The Group recognises that privacy is important to its securityholders and will not disclose registered securityholder details unless required by law.

8. Questions

Securityholders with queries about their holdings of the Group's securities should contact the Group's share registry. Questions about the Group, its performance or other general investor inquiries should be directed to the Group via the contact details provided on the Group's website. All securityholder queries are to be dealt with courteously, impartially and promptly.
